- European Community Meeting,29-31 October, Nice, France
- Asia-Pacific Community Meeting, 20 November, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

"The Community Meetings are about sharing experiences and best practices with a large audience of peers for improved payment security," said Bob Russo, general manager, PCI Security Standards Council. "And learning from one another is one of the best ways we as a community can continue to work together to increase payment card data protection globally. We're looking forward to this year's PCI in Practice sessions to hear about how these organizations representing different industries and geographies are effectively addressing PCI security within their unique business."
